PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Dr. Vrochides:

On behalf of the Board of Governors of McGill University, I write to inform you that you are appointed Adjunct Professor in the Department of Surgery, Faculty of Medicine, for the term beginning 1 January 2009 and ending 31 December 2011. This appointment does not confer eligibility for tenure.

This letter of appointment and the Regulations of the University, including the Regulations Relating to the Employment of Academic Staff as modified by the Board of Governors from time to time, form your contract with the University and no modification thereto has any validity unless approved by the Board of Governors.

I congratulate you on your appointment and express the hope that you will enjoy your responsibilities at the University.

Sincerely,

Professor Anthony C. Masi
Provost

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Dr. Vrochides:

I am pleased to confirm your reappointment as a part-time Adjunct Professor in the Department of Surgery, Faculty of Medicine, beginning 1 January 2012 and ending 31 December 2012. This is a nil-salary position.

This is an unranked appointment governed by the Regulations for the Employment of Contract Academic Staff and does not confer eligibility for tenure.

Your McGill University appointment is only in effect if, and as long as, you hold your appointment with McGill University Health Centre.

This is a definite term appointment and is not subject to renewal. It shall end on the date specified above without further notice of termination and complies with the conditions for prior notice set out in the Regulations.

As a member of the ranked Contract Academic Staff, this letter of appointment, the Regulations Relating to the Employment of Contract Academic Staff (available on-line from the University Secretariat's website at www.mcgill.ca/secretariat/policies/academic/) and all other regulations for your category of employment, as adopted or modified by the Board of Governors from time to time, form your employment contract with the University and no modification thereto has any validity unless approved by the Board of Governors.

I congratulate you on your reappointment and hope that you will continue to enjoy your responsibilities at the University.

Sincerely,

Professor Anthony C. Masi
Provost

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Dr. Vrochides:

I am pleased to confirm your reappointment as an Adjunct Professor in the Department of Surgery, Faculty of Medicine, beginning 1 January 2013 and ending 31 December 2013. This is a nil-salary position.

This is an unranked appointment governed by the Regulations for the Employment of Contract Academic Staff and does not confer eligibility for tenure.

Your McGill University appointment is conditional upon your continuing to hold an appointment outside McGill and your appointment remains in effect subject to the requirements that led to your original appointment as an Adjunct Professor.

As this definite term appointment is for one year or less than one year, the appointment shall end on the date specified without further notice of termination.

As a member of the unranked Contract Academic Staff, this letter of appointment, the Regulations Relating to the Employment of Contract Academic Staff (available on-line from the University Secretariat's website at www.mcgill.ca/secretariat/policies/academic/) and all other regulations for your category of employment, as adopted or modified by the Board of Governors from time to time, form your employment contract with the University.

I congratulate you on your reappointment and hope that you will continue to enjoy your responsibilities at the University.

Sincerely,

Professor Anthony C. Masi
Provost
